Organisation

The European School of Law brings together and delivers double degrees in law at Toulouse 1 Capitole University, Master's degrees in law taught in English and Jean Monnet European teaching modules. It offers a Diplôme d'Université open to those enrolled on one of the courses associated with the school.

The statutory bodies of the ESL are :

The Strategic Direction Committee, which sets the broad outlines

The Teaching Committee, which is responsible for the teaching provided by the school

At its head, the Director, Lukas Rass-Masson, implements the policy determined by the Strategic Direction Committee and, together with the Academic Board, ensures the smooth running of courses, with the support of an administrative team and the teaching staff
